

CHAPTER 9 REVIEW

1. Two factors that make driving in cities more difficult.
A.

B.
2. When the number of hazards increases, you must decrease your
_____.
3. A long following distance has these advantages.
A. C.
B. D.
4. Explain 2 second following distance.
5. Four common high risk areas for sudden stops.
A. C.
B. D.

6. Take these actions to avoid being hit from the rear.

- |    |    |
|----|----|
| A. | D. |
| B. | E. |
| C. |    |

7. Take these actions to identify and react to the hazard of parked cars.

- |    |    |
|----|----|
| A. | D. |
| B. | E. |
| C. |    |

8. Four clues to help you identify a one-way street.

- |    |    |
|----|----|
| A. | C. |
| B. | D. |

9. Resting foot on the brake pedal while driving is called _____
_____.

10. Placing your foot over the brake so you are ready to stop is called
_____.